Archonettes of Alpha Upsilon Zeta Host 10th Annual Stompfest

Tallahassee, FL. – March 1, 2011 The Archonettes of Alpha Upsilon Zeta (AYZ) Chapter of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Incorporated will host the Tenth Annual Stompfest (2K11), Saturday April 16, 2011. The day long event, will address health and wellness issues facing today's youth such as childhood obesity, safe dating, and a few other workshops designed with today's youth in mind. The culmination of the day's events will be the Step Show Competition.

The workshops and cookout will be held at Jack McLean Community Center located at 700 Paul Russell Road, Tallahassee, Florida. The workshops start at 9:00am, followed by the cookout at noon. All workshops and the cookout are offered free of charge and open to the public on a first come first served basis. The 10th Annual Stompfest Competition will start at 6:00pm in the Tallahassee Community College Ballroom. Tickets for the Step Competition are $8.00 in advance, and $10.00 at the door. For more information on purchasing tickets, please email us at stompfest@alphaupsilonzpb.org or call Stork's Nest at 850.513.3003 and leave a message. Tickets may also be purchased the day of the show from 9:00am – 12:00pm at Jack McLean Community Center during the workshops.

The Archonettes of Alpha Upsilon Zeta Chapter are part of the Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Incorporated's National Youth Auxiliaries for high school aged girls 14 – 18 years old. The Archonettes are active servants in the community, and hold the honor of being the home of the current State Youth President, Shaakira White.
